CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

II. No person to advance less than 1*s.*; above five pounds 2*s.* 6*d.*, and so on in proportion.

III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10*s.* in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

V. The sale of any lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of description.

VI. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which they were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.

VII. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited, and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen, who cannot attend this Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

104 St. Patrick's Dublin Halfpence, temp. Charles II (7), and Farthings (30), usual type of King David; rev. St. Patrick, with brass plug, some varieties, including the rare variety on which the head of St. Patrick is surrounded by a nimbus, and of which Dr. Nelson only quotes a specimen in silver (Caldecott Collection) which he describes as unique, many fine 37

105 "Voce Populi" Halfpence, 1760, by Roche of Dublin, of the following varieties: young bust with rosette above head (5): different bust with rosette behind head (2); similar bust without rosette, and reading VOOE (2); older and larger bust with P below (2); similar bust with P in front of head; similar bust without P, all fine, some unusually so 13

 These "Voce Populi" coins are said to have been struck to supply a want occasioned by the delay in the receipt of a coinage from England, which in the subsequent reign (George III) was not issued until 1766. The legend alludes to the joyful and popular succession of George III in 1760, and the laureate bust is evidently intended for that of the Prince of Wales, whose coronation did not take place until Sept. 22nd, 1761.

106 "Voce Populi" Farthings (2), 1760, both pieces from the same die (Nelson, pl. v, n. 16); and another of same date, with a different truncation of bust, the right shoulder not shewn (Nelson v—15), all exceptionally fine, and rare in this state, the last from the Hoblyn Collection 3
